Sensys Gatso receives an order from North Africa worth SEK 8,7 million

Sensys Gatso Group, a global leader in traffic safety systems, through its subsidiary Sensys Gatso Netherlands, has received an order for in-vehicle based traffic enforcement systems spare parts worth EUR 754 thousand, corresponding to SEK 8,7 million, from North Africa.

This order is for the delivery of in-vehicle speed enforcement spare parts and is a continuation of the project that Sensys Gatso Group started in 2015. The order is planned to be delivered during the second half of 2023. The use of our unique in-vehicle systems has proven to be a very effective way to enforce speed and therefore reduce traffic fatalities.

Sensys Gatso Head of Sales for Southern Europe Giovanni Felicetti comments: "We are proud and pleased for the extended confidence in Sensys Gatso's solution with this additional order. The long lasting cooperation confirms the reliability of our solution and the strength of our unique solution over the years".

Sensys Gatso Netherlands Managing Director Niki Gatsonides comments: "The benefits of our in-vehicle system have gained much attention in the global market. The user friendliness, ease of installation and above all the precision and effectiveness of this solution makes Sensys Gatso the clear market leader in this domain".
