Press release February 28, 2025

Sensys Gatso Group CEO to step down; international search process underway

Sensys Gatso Group, a global leader in traffic safety solutions, announced today that Ivo Mönnink will step down as CEO by October 1st, 2025, and will support the onboarding of his successor to ensure a smooth transition. The Board has initiated a comprehensive international search process to identify Sensys Gatso's next CEO.

Ivo Mönnink began his tenure at Sensys Gatso Group AB in October 2017. After 8 years as CEO, Sensys Gatso and Ivo Mönnink concluded that it is time for a transition in leadership at Sensys Gatso.

Claes Ödman, Chairman of Sensys Gatso, is leading a Special Committee of the Board to conduct the CEO search in line with existing succession plans. The Committee expects a conclusion by the end of Q2 2025. Sensys Gatso has engaged Russell Reynolds Associates, a globally recognized search firm, to assist this international search.

"Sensys Gatso is well-positioned for its next phase of growth, and the Board is committed to finding a leader who will drive continued innovation and expansion in global traffic safety solutions. On behalf of the Board, I want to thank Ivo for his contributions to Sensys Gatso. Ivo joined Sensys Gatso in 2017. During his tenure, Ivo strengthened the stability and foundations of the company by rearchitecting the strategy and the structure of the organization, delivering strong double digit revenue growth and consistently positive EBITDA", said Claes Ödman, Chairman of the Board of Sensys Gatso. "With an experienced leadership team in place and the Company on solid footing, the Board and Ivo Mönnink concluded that now is an appropriate time to search for the next CEO of Sensys Gatso to accelerate growth further."
